NEWSPAPER LAW OF OREGON.—Section 222 of the laws of Oregon provides that whenever any person circulating a newspaper shall mail such newspaper to any person in this State without first receiving an order therefor, such newspaper shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person, whether said newspaper is received by the person to whom it is sent or not.

CAN INDIANS VOTE?

In a number of districts in Oregon the question has arisen as to what Indians are qualified to vote, and the election boards in the vicinity of Indian reservations have been confronted with the problem frequently. Roy R. Wise of Klamath has asked an opinion of Attorney General Crawford. Following is an excerpt from the attorney general's reply:

"Indians who have received lands by allotment are subject to and have all the rights privileges and immunities guaranteed by the laws of the state of Oregon, both civil and criminal. Over Indians not allottees the laws of the state have no effect except as to crimes and misdemeanors committed outside the reservation, or that part not yet allotted or thrown open to settlement. Therefore such Indians who have not received allotments would not be entitled to vote."

Indians living on a reservation under federal supervision cannot vote.

Congressman Ellis of Oregon is of the opinion that just at present a certain kind of hysteria prevails throughout the country. He says that if an announcement is made that some senator, Foraker, Tillman, or any other man, is going to flay some public official it is almost certain to draw a crowded house. People flock to the senate to hear public men scourged by other public men. Ellis said that the same was true outside of congress as there seems to be a desire on the part of the people of the present time to have other people flayed for their alleged misdoings.

By an overwhelming vote, President Roosevelt's four battleship programme failed in the Senate, just as it did in the House. The amendment for four battleships was introduced by Senator Piles and the fight for its adoption was led by Senator Beveridge. Twenty-three votes were cast for the increased program, the number being largely made up of recently elected Senators. Fifty Senators voted to support the House and the recommendation of the Senate naval committee for building only two battleships.

There are thousands and thousands of acres of land that needs men and there are thousands and thousands of men who need land. Every step in bringing the landless man and the manless land together is a movement for the good of humanity and the benefit of the country.

William Jennings Bryan has been turned down by the Democratic state convention in Connecticut. The resolutions committee declined to adopt a platform placing the convention on record for Bryan.

"Merry Widow" hats are monstrosities, the padded shoulders of tailor made suits a delusion and a sham, and the American girl a creature of affectation and exaggeration, is the opinion of Mrs. Elinor Glyn, author of "Three Weeks."

It is your duty to vote at the city election Monday. If you neglect it do not blame others for the result.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS

are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
